

Scout sectional helper - Voluntary helpers with children's meetings and activities for boys and girls between the ages of 6-14 years of age

INTRODUCTION

We are part of the worldwide Scout movement established in 1909. The current Chief Scout is Bear Grylls. Scouts is where young people make new friends, have amazing adventures and learn new skills. There are 9 groups in Hayes and Harlington who make this happen – but we need your help! Everyone's welcome here. All genders, races and backgrounds. We take all regardless of their abilities – there's a Scout adventure out there waiting for everyone. And we'll help children find it - and their adult helpers too.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR

We need volunteers to help this happen, working with our existing team of experienced leaders. Whatever your abilities and expertise, we can find a place for you. And you will learn many new skills as well as having great fun. Our groups meet on most evenings of the week between 6 and 9, with occasional weekend activities, you can take part in. You can choose which age group you like to work with and which evenings are convenient for you. Volunteers should be enthusiastic, flexible, and be able to work with adults and children.

Main purpose of the role:	A volunteer will help us make Scouting available to more children, while at the same time learning new skills themselves.
Commitment required:	About 2 hours a week, one evening of the individual's own choice. Training will be provided free of charge
Reporting to:	Section leader of the group you join
Benefits for you:	New skills including leadership, management and communication, outdoor activities, fun, and opportunities to enhance your CV

Role responsibilities:	As a volunteer you will support and assist an experienced team to develop a Scouting programme for more young people in Hayes and Harlington
Skills required:	Enthusiasm
Attributes required:	Flexible, reliable and willing to try new things
Training and support given:	Try it out and see whether it's for you Then FREE training provided Initial Scout Association adult training, Safety & Safeguarding, First Aid Activities and games
