

Daniella Logun Foundation

Supporting Children & Young People diagnosed with brain tumours and their families

Volunteer DLF Fund Raiser – Role Description

This is an exciting new opportunity for a friendly, proactive volunteer to join the Daniella Logun Foundation (DLF) based in West London as a Fund Raiser.

We are looking for an experienced fundraiser to volunteer their time and skills to support the CEO to plan and organise fundraising events on behalf of the charity. We need your help to create and organise various fundraising events throughout the year to raise awareness online (social media) and across our community in a fun and easily achievable way.

Feeling isolated can become a real-life challenge for many of our children who have been diagnosed with a brain tumour or other cancer and their families. This can affect the family's ability to access good quality health and social care support for their children and themselves or maintain good relationships at the point of need. Our goal is to raise awareness and empower people so that our community is better equipped to support our families better.

The ideal volunteer will help us organise events and raise much needed funds to generate more awareness of our cause in Hillingdon and the surrounding areas.

About the Role:

The ideal candidate will have experience:

- Creating new opportunities for Fund Raising
- Engaging with Corporates and potential Sponsors
- Helping us grow our presence locally and nationally
- Work closely with other Trustees to ensure a coherent marketing presence
- Engaging volunteers in fund raising activities

What are we looking for?

- Long term commitment to growing the charity fund raising.
- Ability to work on own without supervision
- Team player
- Fundraising experience
- Ability to multitask
- Organisational skills
- Ability to network and build relationship with potential sponsors
